REEL to REEL Movie with a REAL world-class pianist - LIVE Cinema!

Frederick Hodges of San Francisco & David Shepard of Blackhawk Studios.

Enjoy originally restored rare silent film treasures and the incredible music of Frederick Hodges. David Shepard is a film preservationist whose company, Film Preservation Associates, is responsible for many high quality video versions of silent films. Some come from the Blackhawk Films library (also owned by Shepard) and others from materials owned by private collectors and film archives around the world.

This is a first-time event, brought to you by Friends of the Arts. It is a benefit for Bidwell Mansion Community Project. Shepard began restoring films when he joined the American Film Institute in 1968 as one of their first staff members. In 1987, he bought the Blackhawk Films library.

Frederick Hodges, hailed by the press as one of the best jazz and ragtime pianists in the world, is sought after by today's foremost orchestras, festivals, conductors, and collaborative musicians. His artistry, virtuosity and charisma have brought him to the world's most renowned stages, leaving audiences around the globe captivated.

Frederick has participated in many prestigious festivals including in Sacramento Jazz Jubilee, the WestCoast Ragtime Festival, The Blind Boone Festival in Columbia Missouri, the Templeton Ragtime Festival at Mississippi State University, the El Segundo Ragtime Festival, and the Sedalia Scott Joplin Ragtime Festival.
